PDF | Ibn Khaldun, who lived in 1332-1395. A.D., is a well-known Muslim... Muqaddimah Example 4 letter from General Tahir to his son (d. 844 A.D.), ... who served in the army during the Umayyad years, was wounded in the arm during a battle under Damascus. He talks about how, on the night before the battle, he prayed to God with a request to protect him from the arrows of the enemy. At the same time, he read the following lines: "Lord, grant me victory over my enemies. If I am defeated, then let my hand not tremble before my opponents. And Allah answered these words of the prophet Jesus: "You will live, but you will not enter the grave alive."
