If I type search "cat" for example I get no result at all and "All Files (.)" always appears. If I write "ds" the filter works as expected. Is there a way to get that functionality back? A: In case you need to filter just one or more specific fields in the search bar, you might be interested in the new Filter Menu (Ctrl+F), which lets you search all the way down to the field level. First, let's do a default search for yourself. Once you have typed "cat", the search will narrow down to all searchable items that contain cat as a substring:

It took place at Wembley Stadium on 17 March 1969 and was contested between Liverpool and Arsenal. Liverpool beat Arsenal 2–1 after extra time. Arsenal took an early lead when Joe Harper's headed goal was followed up by Alan Sunderland's goal from the penalty spot, but Liverpool equalised a minute later through Allan Smith. In the second half, Liverpool had the best of several corner kick opportunities but were unable to score. They then took the lead for the second time on 73 minutes, when Sunderland gave way to Tony Nicol who made it 2–1 with a low shot. Arsenal scored again on 77 minutes, but Arsenal's chances of an equaliser were limited due to several injuries sustained in the first half. Sunderland's clearance was intercepted by Martin Chivers, and he made it 2–2 with a shot from the penalty spot. Sunderland again found the net for Liverpool with seconds remaining. Despite Liverpool's win, Arsenal still had a chance of qualifying for the UEFA Cup as they had more points than Liverpool and both had the same number of goals scored. However, they had scored fewer goals than Liverpool and they had scored more goals against clubs from lower divisions. It was the first time since the 1936 final that the losing team would qualify for the following season's UEFA Cup. It would not happen again until 2018, when Arsenal beat Atalanta 3–0. Match Background Arsenal held the record for the most FA Cup wins in the history of the competition (54), but only one other team had won the Cup in three successive seasons. Liverpool had just won its third FA Cup and its first in five years, beating Chelsea 1–0 in the semi-final, while Arsenal had reached the semi-final for the first time since 1950. Team Arsenal Overall, Arsenal had never lost
